

The Paducah

VOLUME IX. NUMBER 1.

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1902.

HE ENTERS EARLY

Hon. John K. Hendrick Announces His Candidacy For Governor.

He Will Make the Race For the Democratic Gubernatorial Nomination In 1903.

RESULT OF MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT

Hon. John K. Hendrick, the well known Smithland attorney, who has made Paducah his home for the past several years, and who served with credit a term in Congress, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1903. He took this step after receiving letters and requests from all over the state, urging him to make the race. He decided to enter early, and will begin his canvass as soon as he winds up his law practice, which will require considerable time, and is one reason he came out so early.

Mr. Hendrick is one of the most prominent men in the Democratic party, and decidedly the most intelligent, evenly balanced, and best equipped for high office in this part of the state, if not the entire commonwealth. He came to the conclusion, after many solicitations, to allow the use of his name as a candidate, and will make every effort to win the nomination. His services to his party, especially lately, his friends claim have been such that they cannot be ignored.

Mr. Hendrick informed a Sun representative this morning that he would make the race for the nomination.

NEVER EQUALLED.

CONDITION OF THE UNITED STATES TREASURY FINE.

Washington, Jan. 1.—The treasury is in a condition of unexampled strength," said Secretary Gage today, when asked to review briefly the treasury situation at the close of the year.

"For the calendar year we show receipts in excess of ordinary expenditures amounting roundly to 100,000,000 dollars. Such an excess might have resulted in serious embarrassment, had not the department been able by means of this surplus to reduce the public debt in large amounts. Since April 1 last the treasury has redeemed and cancelled United States bonds to the par value of $58,714,500, which have been applied to the sinking fund, and the disbursement resulting therefrom was $72,226,846. The available cash on hand is therefore only about $30,000,000 larger than the amount held a year ago.

"The amount of gold coin and gold certificates in circulation increased from $553,560,515 on March 1, 1897, to $914,300,089 on December 1, 1901. Every other kind of money in circulation is greater in amount now than on March 1, 1897, with the single exception of treasury notes of the act of July 14, 1890. The amount of these in circulation December 1, 1901, was only $10,017,622, as against $85,546,621 on March 1, 1897. This reduction in volume grows out of the natural operation of the act of July 14, 1890, and the act of March 14, 1900.

"The increase in the amount of national bank notes in circulation during the period in question was $132,132,781. This increase is mainly attributed to the act of March 14, 1900."

WAS MISUNDERSTOOD

President Roosevelt, as Usual, Not Correctly Quoted By Yellow Press.

He Did Not "Scold" General Miles—The True Facts of the Now Noted Incident.

HE ONLY REPRIMANDED THE OFFICER

Washington, Jan. 1.—President Roosevelt has been somewhat disturbed by the general criticism because of his reported "scolding" of Lieut. Gen. Miles in the presence of a number of public men at the White House. The president consulted several political friends as to the advisability of making a statement, but was advised to let the matter pass, on the ground that the president of the United States should not be in the position of defending himself. However, the real facts in the "scolding" incident have become known. This is an absolutely correct statement of the affair. Gen. Miles called on the president to explain his interview criticism of the report of the court of inquiry and his expression of sympathy for Admiral Schley as one persecuted. When the president saw Gen. Miles he asked the latter to step into the cabinet room. The general did not do so and was again requested to "step into the cabinet room." But Gen. Miles, for some reason, probably because he was in a hurry, and full of the subject, remained where he was, and then the president told the lieutenant-general, with characteristic emphasis, that his interview was subversive to military discipline. Part of what was said was heard by people in the room, but the president did not elevate his voice more than usual. It is said there was really no "scolding," simply an earnest expression of the president's opinion that Gen. Miles has been indiscreet.

Mr. H. G. Vaughan Had Been Away About Two Years.

Spent Several Months in Alaska, and Will Return There.

Mr. Horace G. Vaughan, a well known young man of Paducah, returned last evening after a two year absence. He and Mr. Tom Sanders went to the Klondike together, and while Mr. Sanders returned to the United States soon after, and is now working in a big shoe house in the West, Mr. Vaughan found that the wild life in the gold regions agreed with him, and remained at home, not returning to this country until last fall. He has since been west, and will in the spring return to the land of gold.

He reports the country quite attractive, and his stories of the life there are about the same as those of others who have returned from there. He will leave the city tomorrow or Friday.

A SMASHUP.

COUNTY PHYSICIAN PENDLEY HURT BY A COLLISION.

The patrol wagon collided with Dr. J. W. Pendley's buggy at Fifth and Court streets shortly before noon today, and tore the buggy up badly and injured Dr. Pendley slightly in the side, but the injury is not of a serious nature. Patrol Driver John Austin was out on his first run, and the horses were going at a lively gallop when Fifth street was reached. Dr. Pendley was coming along Fifth street at a good rate of speed when the patrol neared the corner, and before either the patrol or the buggy could be stopped a collision took place. The body of the buggy was torn up and also two of the wheels. A piece of the buggy side struck Dr. Pendley in the side, but did not seriously injure him. The vehicle was turned almost upside down, but the patrol wagon was not damaged.

TO HIS FIRST LOVE.

THE NEW YEAR.

The Usual Amount of Noise Made Last Night in Greeting It.

Today Has Been Generally Observed as a Holiday Throughout the City.

The new year was ushered in at midnight with the usual din, discharge of fire works and watch parties. There were many people out, the weather was auspicious and the noise did not cease for fifteen minutes. This New Year we are certain that we are in the twentieth century, and the controversy that was so warm a year ago has been spared us.

Today has been another of our holidays, and the last of the series. The banks, schools, public buildings and many of the factories are closed, and the prevailing dullness everywhere has made it a very uninteresting day. Tomorrow business will resume and get in full swing for the year, the schools will open and the factories start up again. The outlook is bright indeed.

The Sun wishes its many readers a happy New Year.

JUDGE EMERY

HE WILL GO TO FRANKFORT AND THE REFORM SCHOOL.

County Judge Emery stated this morning that he will next week take Jesse Edmonson, the small boy charged with housebreaking, to the house of reform at Lexington. He will take him because he has to go to Frankfort on business, and will have plenty of time. On his way home he will stop several days in Frankfort, to hobnob with the politicians.

MR. ED NANCE RESIGNS.

Mr. Ed Nance, who for several years past had been connected with the Sutherland Medicine company as bookkeeper, resigned yesterday and this morning became manager of the new S. H. Winstead Medicine company. Mr. Nance is thoroughly up in the business, and will win success in it. Mr. Louis Hollis, who has been traveling for the Sutherland Medicine company, has resigned to accept a position with a new company Mr. Sutherland is organizing at St. Louis.

The Sun has removed to the old News stand, 115 South Third street.

FOR RURAL

An Important Decision Affecting Rural Free Delivery in Kentucky.

The Question For Civil Service Examinations Will Not Be Difficult.

CHANGE IN THE METHOD OF PAYING

An important decision affecting the rural free delivery carriers, who are soon to enter the classified civil service list, has been at a conference of the postmaster-general, Supt. Machen of the rural free delivery service and the civil service commission. This was the adoption of rules governing the examination of the carriers and regulating future appointments in the rural free delivery service.

February 1, 1902, was fixed as the date the rules will become effective. After that date all petitions for the establishment of service will be furnished by the department, and will include nominations for the position of carrier, each petitioner having the right to make a nomination if he desires to do so. The special agent who reports upon the feasibility of establishing service will also examine the applicants nominated by the petitioners and any others who may apply.

The examination will be exceedingly simple, only sufficient to test the applicant's ability to read and write. It consists in filling out an application blank on which are a number of personal questions. Only persons residing in or near the immediate vicinity of a proposed route will be examined. Only such applicants will be examined as have the necessary equipment, horse and wagon or cart, or who can satisfy the special agent that they are prepared, if appointed, to furnish such equipment.

The rule allowing the petitioners to suggest the names of carriers is expected to obviate the recurrence of political squabbles over appointments such as that which Mr. De Armond, a Missouri congressman, recently brought on, goes so far as to specify that political endorsement will not be received nor entertained. The examinations will be confined to persons over seventeen years of age and under fifty-five, with the exception of honorably discharged soldiers of the civil or Spanish war, to whom the age limit does not apply.

The postoffice department has decided to pay the Kentucky rural free delivery carriers by check from the Louisville postoffice. Heretofore they have been paid from Washington, and the pay was usually about two months behind. There are fourteen of these carriers.

PETRIFIED SOCK.

STRANGE FIND IN A COW'S PAUNCH THE OTHER DAY.

Milk and Meat Inspector Hessig has in his possession a curiosity in the form of a piece of petrified yarn sock. It was found in the paunch of a cow killed by Mr. Bell, near the city, and had some of the wool clinging to it when removed. It is a very unusual find, and will be kept by the inspector as a curiosity.

MARRIED IN EVANSVILLE.

THE BRIDE IS QUITE WELL KNOWN IN PADUCAH.

Cards were received here today announcing the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Egli of Evansville to Mr. Arthur Witbeck of Auburn, N. Y., at the Zion Evangelical church, the 29th. The bride is quite well known here, having visited her aunt, Mrs. H. S. Thixton, on Jefferson street.

ALL GONE.

THE "CORN STALK" DISEASE HAS SEEMINGLY DISAPPEARED.

Dr. Hessig reports that the peculiar disease that killed so many cows recently in this section, as well as other parts of the state, has disappeared, and no cases have been reported in McCracken county for quite a while.

BALANCE IN THE STATE TREASURY.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 1.—State Auditor Gus O. Conley's report shows a balance of $115,000 in the treasury.

Officer James Collins went to Cairo.

He Began Work as a Police Officer This Morning Early.

Officer James Collins went to Cairo this morning to bring back Susie Dondie, colored, who was arrested in that city yesterday on a warrant charging her with the theft of clothes to the amount of about $45, stolen some time ago from Court street women. The theft was not detected until some time after, and then it was too late to make the catch, as the woman had left the city. The warrant was forwarded to Cairo, and she was searched out and arrested. Mr. Collins may go to Missouri on a private mission, before bringing the woman back.

The work today is the first assignment Officer Collins has had for several years as a police officer.

For many years he had been marshal, but today began "policing" again, and expects to make as good an officer at "360 per" as he did a marshal at $250 per month.

NO ARRESTS

POLICE FIND THE PEOPLE UNUSUALLY GOOD FOR NEW YEAR'S EVE.

The night police made no arrests last night, contrary to the usual custom. Every New Year's night there would be many drunks, the last of a man just taking the pledge, and consequently there would be a big police court the next day. There was one lodger, and aside from him the lockup was unoccupied last night. Judge Sanders did not hold court this morning, but continued all cases on the docket over until tomorrow.

IS DYING.

MAN SHOT BY WILL POLK BECOMES SUDDENLY WORSE.

George Gray, who was several days ago shot by Will Polk, is reported dying this morning. Dr. Lloyd, the attending physician, says that the wound through the lung is worse, and that he does not think the man has much of a chance to live. Gray says that he gave Polk no cause whatever to shoot, and that he himself was unarmed and had no means to defend or protect himself.

LOCAL SHOWMEN LOSE.

Knowlton, Tenn., Jan. 1.—Terrell Brothers, showmen from Paducah, lost today in the litigation that resulted from a misunderstanding with their employees while in this city last spring.

Dr. Jennelle's Tooth Powder, the only perfect dentifrice. Used by refined people. Sold by all druggists.

is another effort
a different quarter to have a telephone franchise sold here. The Sun believes that what is best for the people should be done. It is not an advocate of monopoly, nor a champion of the telephone system now in operation here, but it believes that the city should not repeat its experience of wasting time and money on futile telephone schemes. If we have worse telephone service than other cities, and the rates are higher, the citizens could likely secure relief in the proper way, but to attempt to make two telephone systems pay here, and have some of the people using one and some another, with no connection between the two, and no means of one merchant or citizen communicating with one using the other line, is apparently foolish, and has failed in more cities than one. The telephone system here is owned and operated by one of the most fearless corporations in the country, and has never yet been driven out of a place. If there is to be another one of those periodic telephone agitations, let's see first how it is going to benefit the city and the people.
No company will purposely sink money in an unprofitable investment, and how another telephone system could be made to pay is something that is beyond the comprehension of the average business man.

The city authorities at Frankfort are waging war on the "sparring matches" that are to be pulled off by the Athletic and Literary club. This is pretty tough on the good people there who are inclined to enjoy the "literary prize fights."

It is reported that Rube Whipple, the town constable in "Way Down East," was offered a position on the police force by Mayor Yelzer, but Rube declined. He is making more money in the show business.

If there is anything in the early bird getting the worm, Hon. John K. Hendrick ought to stand a good chance of getting the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

It is understood that there is an agreement as to how far Germany is to go with Venezuela, and no complications are likely to arise with this government.

We have a new year today—and here's hoping.

THE CHALLENGE

HAS ARRIVED IN LEXINGTON
AND IS IN HENRY T. DUN-CAN'S HANDS.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 1.—Pat T.
Farnsworth's challenge to Desha Breckinridge to fight a duel has arrived. It reached Farnsworth's friend and second, Henry T. Duncan, yesterday, but the latter has not yet delivered it to Breckinridge's second, John B. Payne.

When asked regarding the matter, Duncan refused positively to discuss it, or to give out a copy of the challenge. Mr. Breckinridge said the matter is in the hands of Mr. Payne.

DECLARED DIVIDENDS.

BANK DIRECTORIES MET YES-TERDAY AFTERNOON AND ANNOUNCED PER CENT.

The directors of the various banks, as announced several days ago, met yesterday afternoon and declared dividends for the past six months. The amounts are as follows: First National, 7 per cent; City National, 6 per cent; Citizens' Savings bank and American German, 4 per cent; Paducah Banking Co., 3 per cent.

Chas. Replogle, Atwater, O., was in very bad shape. He says: "I suffered a great deal with my kidneys and was requested to try FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. I did so and in four days I was able to go to work again, now I am entirely well."

FARRIS OUT

ONLY TWO CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT PRO TEM OF
THE SENATE.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 1.—State Senator George T. Farris, of Garrard county, announces his withdrawal from the race before the Democratic convention for the nomination for president of the Senate. New-

Mr. George Rock, the Broadway show merchant, has been in business on Broadway for forty-three years, with the advent of the new year. He opened up in Paducah in the third story of the building standing where now stands the John Bond's drug store. Later he moved over on Broadway, near Second, and four times he has since changed locations, but has never moved off Broadway. Mr. Rock is one of Paducah's oldest and most respected merchants. He has prospered through hard work and honesty, and is now one of our best citizens, and most honored men. Few of those who were here when he first came are here now, but Mr. Rock is still a young man, and is at his place of business often as early as 6 o'clock in the morning.

With all his faults the gallery god has one redeeming trait. He may sit up in the "buzzard roost" and say peanut shells and ingeniously rolled programs at you all night; he may unmercifully gey the hero at the most touching part of the performance, and give vent to those things known as "cat-calls" and hisses, but when he sees an American flag he yells until his lungs are weak. It is inexplicable how some of the demoralized, incorrigible youngsters can have sentiment enough in them to cheer the American flag or anything else, but no matter how bad they are, how scornful and how defiant, whenever they see the "Stars and Stripes" they shout until they get hoarse, and shout as often as the colors are displayed. There is some hope for the gallery god yet.

McCracken county's new jailer, Officer Fayette Jones, is quite a peculiar man in many respects. One thing he can truthfully say that few other men can say, is that he never touched a drink of intoxicating liquor in his life, nor of the milder and more generally used beverage, coffee. Few men can say that they never tasted coffee in their lives, but Officer Jones is one of those who can. He drinks nothing but water.

Officer Jones is the man who told a mule story a few years ago that was printed in this paper and copied all over the country. It was that you could tell whether a horse was a fast traveler or not by watching him eat.
If he ate slowly he was a slow mover. If he ate fast he was a swift stepper. The way the story was dished up made it a novelty, and it created great amusement among horsemen.

The Rev. Poindester S. Henson, newly called to the pastorate of the Hanson Place Baptist church, in Brooklyn, was besought by three women, Christian Scientists, in the effort to make a convert of the clergyman. Dr. Henson has only one eye, a glass imitation being placed in the second socket. The faith cures appealed to Dr. Henson to join them in a petition for a new eye.

Dr. Henson assured his callers of his interest in the project, but asked them if they could give any proof of any similar cures. Inquiry revealed the fact that every one of the callers were false teeth.

"Well," said the minister, "I appreciate your interest in me very much, and I promise you that if your faith will procure for each of you a new set of natural teeth, I will give your plan careful consideration."

The Rev. Dr. Samuel Parkes Cad-man, pastor of the Central Congregational church, Brooklyn, tells a story of a patriotic small boy in his Sunday school, whom he calls "Little Georgie." His teacher had told the class of the things that God had created at the beginning, and then suddenly turned to the tiny youngster.

"What did God make on the fourth day, Georgie?" inquired the tutor.
Now the boy's thoughts were centered on a new and beautiful flag his father had just purchased, so instead of the expected answer "The sun, moon and stars," Georgie confidently exclaimed:

"The stars and stripes!"
Involuntarily the teacher smiled, and the little man cried when she said he was wrong.
"Well," he replied indignantly, "if He didn't make 'em, who did?"

While the general public is vaguely aware that enormous quantities of material are used in the making of the modern magazine, comparatively few persons have any idea of the vast amount required. If the paper used in the last twelve issues of The Ladies' Home Journal, for instance, were in one gigantic strip a foot wide, it would go nearly six times around the globe.

takes almost 6,000 gallons of ink every

Henry M. Hyde was sent for a few months ago by a Chicago publisher who wanted to get out a volume of golf stories. He thought Mr. Hyde was the man to write to order, but he wished to make certain before he committed himself.

Without signing a contract, he persuaded Mr. Hyde to write him a couple of stories, and send them to his office by way of getting started. A week later the stories came back with a note which said: "Don't write any more of that rot. Nobody but a fool would print stories like these."

Mr. Hyde sent one of the tales thus rudely rejected to Harper's, and it was printed a month or two later in Harper's Bazar. He then sent a marked copy of the Bazar to the Chicago publisher with a note which read:
"Referring to my last letter, here's one fool. More to come." A little later the second story was published in the Sun, and again a copy went forward labeled "Fool No.
2." After the third story had been written, published and marked and forwarded, the publisher in question sent an answer to Mr. Hyde by special delivery.

"Let up," it said. "What's the use of rubbing it in? I'm sorry I spoke."

Miss Ora V. Eddleman is perhaps the only Indian woman who publishes a magazine in the United States. She is editor and publisher of The Twin Territories, which has for three years struggled along, and is now on a paying basis.

It is printed at Muskogee, the metropolis of the Indian Territory, and no one but those of Indian blood are allowed to contribute to its pages.
There is much literary excellence in the publication.

Miss Eddleman is "a sixteenth part Cherokee Indian," fair and beautiful. She is, like most of her sisters, a brunette of striking type.

But twenty years of age, her success as a writer has been remarkable.
Under the pen name of "Mignon Shriener," she is known to many of the leading magazine editors as the author of "Lizoukt, the Creek Girl,"
"Only an Indian Girl" and "A Pair of Moccasins." These stories contain remarkably accurate descriptions of civilized Indian life, which is little known to the outside world.

The Twin Territories is a thirty-two page magazine, illustrated by Indian artists and scenes from Indian and Oklahoma Territory. Miss Eddleman goes among the Indians and engages the cultured to write for her columns.

She has on her staff all the various chieftains, and they contribute with a thorough knowledge of the people.
To the stranger it is more difficult to secure an audience with an Indian chief than with the president of the United States. They are wary of the white man.

Mr. J. F. Wallace of Chicago, general manager of the Illinois Central railroad, passed through the city this morning at 7:50 o'clock en route to the Kentucky Western road from Chicago. He passed through on the early accommodation train in his special car, accompanied by his son, Mr. H. U. Wallace, the superintendent of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central. Besides this business, Mr. Wallace will make a regular inspection of the Louisville and Evansville divisions of the Illinois Central.

THE SCHOOLS.

WILL RE-OPEN TOMORROW WITH PROSPECTS OF A BETTER ATTENDANCE.

The local public schools will open again tomorrow, after the holidays. The attendance will probably be better than when the schools closed, as the weather now is much more favorable. There is still some scarlet fever in the city, and all pupils living near the disease will have to remain out until the case is reported cured. This will have some effect on the number of pupils, as it has during the past several weeks.

PAINFUL INJURY TO MR. BEN MAYNARD, A RAILROAD EMPLOYEE.

Mr. Ben Maynard of the Illinois Central boiler shops was badly injured last night while shooting out the old year at Twelfth and Madison streets. C. hospital today for treatment. His many friends will regret to learn of the accident.

The pretty and pathetic pastoral play, "Way Down East," which is perhaps familiar to everyone who ever heard of the stage, and had phenomenal runs in the larger cities, was presented to the largest audience of the season at The Kentucky last night. It is a peculiar fact that it should remain for a play like "Way Down East" to tax our beautiful new play house to its utmost for the first time, as we have had several better this season, and likewise peculiar that a large number of people who are old enough to know better came trailing in after the curtain had gone up, causing great confusion for a short time. But you can never tell what an audience is going to do. The people had read and heard of "Way Down East" and they wanted to see it, if they didn't get to see anything else this season. For this reason the entire house was sold out at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and not a seat was to be obtained anywhere. About 200 paid for standing room, and the house was worth over $1,000 to the management, the largest of the season.

As to the play, "Way Down East" is too well known to be reviewed. The company is a good one, and the performance, with its lifelike scenery and its delineation of simple honest country life, was one that got next the hearts of many of the auditors, and brought tears to the eyes of even the most callous.

Miss Flora Fairchild, as "Anna Moore," is an actress who thoroughly understands the difficult role she assumed, and plays it well. She is pretty and graceful, as is Miss Virginia Westbrook as "Kate Brewster."

Mr. Scott Cooper, as the "squire," portrays a character that fits him like a glove, and "Hi Holler"—well, it was the same old story, obliging Hi, always ready to do anything he was told, and a few things he was told not. Mr. Frank Nelson essayed that part, and played it well. Mr. "Fred Backus," "Lennox Sanderson," the villainous "gossip," had "Vivia Ogden," the very odious to the audience were which were well and artistically interpreted, while Charles C. Blanchard, as the "town constable," H. H. Forsman, the "professor," and Edwin Chapman, as "Seth Holcomb," contributed no little to the amusement derived from the comedy roles.

There is a wholesome lesson in "Way Down East," and if the vast audience last night did not get all there was to get out of it, it was not because the company was not first class in every respect and the audience one composed of the best and most intelligent people. The village choir was a little tiresome, but it did not take much time, except in the first act.

Briefly stated, "Way Down East" gave satisfaction, both to the people, Manager English and the company.

STATE IS SLIPPING AWAY

Montana Seems to Have Lost Her Moongrass and is Sliding. It is the opinion of a number of the scientists connected with the geological bureau at Washington that the state of Montana is slowly creeping into Idaho and Wyoming. The evidence of the fact, however, is not sufficiently strong to cause alarm in any of the three states. Still, for years it has been known that there has been some trouble with Montana's foundations, which are slipping and leaving evidence of the fact on the surface of the ground. Railway companies have found quite plain and strange twists in the alignment of their roads, and civil engineers have found "bench marks" changing their elevations in a confusing manner. Recently these reasonably suspected movements have become apparent and left large cracks in the earth at several points in the city of Butte, extending for a number of feet, and being in extreme cases twelve inches wide. The effect of this is not only to throw railways out of line, but to cause much more serious damage to gas pipes and water mains. Geologists say that nothing serious is threatened and that parts of Montana are only doing in a more marked manner what is going on all over our restless world.—Chicago Chronicle.
